DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH : EMS Case #02-024 DIVISION OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL : SERVICES :

   vs.   :

ROBERT ALLIENELLO, EMT-B (10744) :

INTERIM CONSENT ORDER

Pursuant to Chapter 23-4.1 of the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island, 1956, as Amended, a complaint was filed with the Department of Health, Division of Emergency Medical Services (hereinafter "Department"), charging Robert Allienello, EMT-Basic (hereinafter

"Respondent"), with a violation of the Rules and Regulations Relating to Emergency Medical Services (R23-4.1-EMS). Prior to rendering a final decision on this matter, the Department and Respondent reached accord on an interim course of action. It is agreed by and between the parties as follows:

1) The Respondent shall submit to an evaluation for alcohol abuse by a health professional approved by the Department within one (1) month following the date of the execution of this Order.

2) The Respondent agrees that a copy of the report of the evaluation referenced in paragraph one (1) shall be forwarded to the Department within two (2) weeks of the date of the evaluation for review and consideration.

3) That after review and evaluation of the information contained in said evaluation, the Medical Affairs Committee of the Ambulance Service Advisory Board will make a recommendation to the Department as to what sanctions, if any, are warranted with respect to Respondent's professional practice. In signing the Interim Consent Order, the Respondent in no way waives the right to a hearing pursuant to Chapter 42-35 of the General Laws in the event that Respondent does not accept the Department actions on this matter.

4) That the terms of this Interim Consent Order shall remain in full force and effect pending further order of the Department.
